FORT BENNING, GA – Fort Benning's Instructors of the Year will be recognized at an awards ceremony Dec. 8 at 1 p.m. in Infantry Hall, Classroom 6.

The honorees were selected from more than a thousand instructors at the Infantry School for the quality of their instructional techniques and their subject matter expertise. Each had previously been named as an Instructor of the Quarter. They will now compete for honors at Training and Doctrine Command.

Capt. Steven G. Robins will be recognized as the Officer Instructor of the Year. Robins is platoon trainer assigned to the 5th Ranger Training Battalion, Ranger Training Brigade at Camp Frank D. Merrill in Dahlonega, GA.

The Senior Enlisted Instructor of the Year is Sgt. 1st Class Rowell C. Guevarra. He is a ranger instructor assigned to the 4th Ranger Training Battalion, Ranger Training Brigade. Guevarra is a veteran of Operations Iraqi Freedom I and II.

The Junior Enlisted Instructor of the Year is Staff Sgt. Johnny B. Thompson. Thompson is a military mountaineering instructor with the 5th Ranger Training Battalion, Ranger Training Brigade. A native of Texas, he joined the Army in October 1995.
